Los Gatos Jubilee Community Art Experience

Project to create a commemorative art work representing the spirit of Los Gatos launches on July 4

Los Gatos, CA – As part of the Town of Los Gatos Jubilee Year celebrating its 125th anniversary, the community is invited to be part of a special hands-on art experience that will create a commemorative display representing the spirit of Los Gatos.

Several workshops will be held in July at different locations in town where residents ages 5 to 105 can create a unique piece on the theme “What I love about Los Gatos” using one of four motifs – hand, heart, star or leaf. Los Gatos artists Anne Lamborn and Jade Bradbury will take these hundreds of pieces and combine them into a large wall display that will be mounted in the new Library as a lasting tribute to the 2012 Jubilee Year.

Participants can use words, photos, drawings or designs made with paints and markers to personalize their artistic contribution. The piece can be signed or left anonymous. A list of all community members who participate will become part of the permanent historical records of the Town.

The first workshop will be held on July 4th, during the Town’s Independence Day celebration. Between 11 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. residents may drop in at the Adult Recreation Center, 208 Main St., to create their personal artwork piece. All materials except photos will be provided. Photos should be small enough to fit on a motif approximately four inches in diameter. Dates and locations of additional workshops will be announced soon.

“This is a wonderful opportunity for residents to be part of the Town’s Jubilee celebration in a meaningful way,” said Diane McNutt, Chair of the Town’s Jubilee Celebration Committee. “Together we are creating a beautiful display that will reflect our community’s character and values. The art experience is something we will remember as one of those ‘only in Los Gatos’ moments we treasure.”

The Jubilee Community Art Experience display will be unveiled this fall in conjunction with the reopening and dedication of Pageant Grounds Park on the Civic Center campus.
