LES WHITE PROPOSED AS INTERIM TOWN MANAGER

Los Gatos, CA – On Tuesday, March 3, the Los Gatos Town Council will be considering the appointment of Les White as Interim Town Manager. White has previously served Los Gatos as Interim Town Manager and Acting Parks and Public Works Director. He also worked for the Town during the prior Town Manager transition and on other special projects.

Current Town Manager Greg Larson recently announced his plans to retire and Town Council will also be considering approval of an agreement with Mr. Larson to allow for a smooth transition to a new Town Manager.

Les White said, “I look forward to again serving Los Gatos and working closely with the Town Council and the excellent Town Staff.” White is well known for his extensive career as City Manager in San Jose, Fullerton and high level positions in Fresno and Anaheim. In addition, White has served in other executive positions for public, nonprofits and educational institutions including United Way Silicon Valley, Fort Ord Reuse Authority, Association of Monterey Bay Area Governments, West Valley/Mission Community College District, and the cities of Palo Alto, Seaside, and Pittsburg CA.
